

- 1. Define the magnitude and severity of an injury.
◆
- 2. Identify and establish priorities of treatment.
◆
- 3. Apply correct methods of physiological monitoring.
◆
- 4. Determine the appropriate guidelines for transfer of a patient, including factors of time, facility and method of transport.
◆
- 5. Provide primary treatment of the burn area, associated injuries and common complications within the first 24 hours post-burn.

SUNY UPSTATE UNIVERSITY
CLARK BURN CENTER

---

JOAN DOLINAK, MD, FACS
REBECCA WILLISON, RN

CONTACT: 315-464-2614

COURSE DATES:

FEBRUARY 2, 2018

MAY 4, 2018

JULY 6, 2018

SEPTEMBER 7, 2018

NOVEMBER 2, 2018

PROVIDER COURSE

American Burn Association
Advanced Burn Life Support
625 N. Michigan Avenue, Suite 1530
Chicago, IL 60611
Phone: 312-642-9260
Fax: 312-642-9130
www.ameriburn.org

PROVIDER
COURSE